Join us for the 2016 Bay to Birdwood Run

On Sunday 25 September the roads of Adelaide will come alive with historic motoring. This year's Bay to Birdwood Run celebrates veteran, vintage and early-classic vehicles manufactured up to 31 December 1959. The iconic event has grown to become the largest continuously held historic motoring celebration of its kind in the world.

The day starts at 6am at Barratt Reserve, West Beach where the entrants gather with their vehicles. People are welcome to join in the early morning atmosphere and have breakfast and wander among the motoring history. From 8:30am Australia's legendary Grand Prix flag waver, Glen Dix waves every vehicle on their way.

As the vehicles make their way to Birdwood, people are encourage to find the best spot along the 70km route and watch the cavalcade of motoring history pass by. This year's Run will head up Anzac Highway and turn onto Cross Road, Portrush Road, Payneham Road, Lower North East Road and through to Houghton, Inglewood and Gumeracha, finishing at its home of 36 years - the National Motor Museum in Birdwood.

The finish event at the National Motor Museum will see up to 10,000 people enjoy the array of vehicles and fashion of the era on display. Top class musical acts will entertain participants and spectators. There will be quality regional produce on offer, including local Adelaide Hills wines and craft beers as well as gourmet food vans. The Museum will be open as usual and there will be family and children's activities on offer throughout the day.

People are encourage to pre purchase tickets to the finish event at the National Motor Museum online for $15 <https://store.motor.history.sa.gov.au/eventticket/bay-birdwood-finish-event-general-admission> Tickets will also be available at the gate on the day, adults $20, concession $15 and children under 15 Free.

We look forward to seeing everyone at the start, along the route and at the National Motor Museum at Birdwood on Sunday 25 September 2016.
